Raiders Football Priorities

1. Faith and Family
2. Academics*
3. Football*

*Student-athletes must learn to balance academics and athletics.

Raider Football Expectations

- Student-Athletes Must Communicate to Their Coaches
 - Parents/Guardians must step aside and let their sons learn
- Being on time is being early
 - Life and school happen
 - Connect with coaches somehow (email, hudl, schoology)
- Attendance
 - The expectation is that is your son is at school and practice everyday
 - If you're son wants to play he won't miss

Raider Football Expectations

- Be Prepared
 - For school...
 - Take care of your academics and be prepared for class everyday
 - Stay organized!
 - For football...
 - Know the Calendar
 - Have all equipment for each practice and game

Raider Football Expectations

- Commitment
 - Without it, this is just a club
 - Commit to your teammates and the program
 - Be part of something that is bigger than you
 - Strength Train all year
 - Sophs-Senior will workout in Avd Strength Training all year
 - Frosh-Seniors not in Avd Strength Training will workout during practice in season and before or after school in the off season.

Raider Football Expectations

- Effort
 - It's a choice to give everything you have.
 - Coaches will demand maximum effort.
 - Athletes will be corrected promptly and sternly for effort mistakes (Loafs, “dogging it”)
- It's not going to be easy
 - This program is intense and the expectations are high. It's not for everyone

Raider Football Expectations

- Do your Job
 - Get it done, academically
 - Make good decision, socially
 - Fulfill your responsibilities for your position(s)
- Be Selfless
 - Put the team ahead of yourself
 - Nothing is more important than the team

Raider Football Expectations

- Character
 - One's true character shows when you think no one is watching.

Eyes and Ears,
EVERYWHERE!!!

Raider Football Levels

- Option 1
 - Varsity
 - Soph
 - Frosh
- Option 2
 - Varsity
 - JV1 (Soph)
 - Higher Ability Level Frosh and Sophs
 - JV2 (Frosh)
 - Developing Level Frosh and Sophs

*It's a numbers game.

*If Athletes play both games, they will only play one side of the ball

Summer Camp

- Camp is where seasons are won and lost
 - Learning schemes and techniques
 - Create and bond with your teammates
 - Establish relationships with your coaches
 - Evaluation period for coaches
- Attendance
 - If you're not there coaches have nothing to evaluate
 - Not mandatory but HIGHLY recommended your son attends camp.

Summer Camp

- Every necessities for camp
 - Equipment: Shoulder Pads, Helmet, Mouth guard
 - Uniforms: Practice Jersey and Camp shorts and shirt
 - Cleats and Gym Shoes
 - Water Bottle or Thermis
 - 3-ring binder with paper and pen/pencil

Summer Camp

- Parents' Day
 - July 11th, 7-9:30 AM

Fall (August) Practice

- Registration is all done ONLINE on Powerschool, Please complete before August
- 1st official day of practice is August 7th
 - See Calendar
- Equipment handout - August 11th
 - Lowers (Leg pads and Practice pants)

Fall Practice cont.

- Times will fluctuate
- Attendance is mandatory
- No Show = No Play
- Excused vs. Unexcused Absences
 - Excused Examples:
 - Sick
 - If you're sick and miss practice is could result in loss of playing time due to lack of preparation.
 - Death in the family
 - College visits
 - Allowed one visit during the season on Saturdays
 - Unexcused Examples:
 - "Don't feel like it"
 - Late
 - Slept in

Academic Expectations

- Academics are #1
- To remain eligible athletes must maintain passing grades in 5 classes
- Should seek help BEFORE school or during lunch

Raider Football Academic Accountability Program

- Any student who has 2 or more D's and/or F's will be in the program
- Will take place for 30 minutes following practice 2x's/week.
- Grade Checks Weekly

Behavioral Expectations

- All players to follow and sign Raider Football Code of conduct
 - This will be sign by the athlete in the fall
- Will defer to Deans for handling behavioral issues outside of football during the school day but we can (and probably will) be part of the disciplinary plan
 - BMTs

Behavioral Expectations

- Social Media
 - Blessing and a curse
 - There are eyes and ears EVERYWHERE!!!
- Athletic Code Violations
 - Poor behavioral choices will result in loss of playing time and/or dismissal from team
 - PARENT'S ROLE
 - Don't "fall on the sword" for your sons. Hold them accountable for their actions. Set high expectations for them. Teach them there are consequences for not following expectations. We will do our best to support you as well.
 - There are eyes and ears EVERYWHERE!!!

Parent Relations

Do's

- Teach your son to advocate for himself
- Ask coaches how your son can improve as an athlete
- Provide construction criticism to HC or level HCs
- Consider the evaluation process the coaches go through EVERYDAY of practice.

Don'ts

- Blindside a coach if frustrated
 - Set up a private meeting, call, or use email
- Question a coach about playing time for your son

Parent Relations

- “In loco parentis”
- Safety first
 - Head out of Tackling
 - YouTube “Seahawks Tackling Drills” and click on the first link.
 - Tempo of practice will be defined
 - Defer to the our training staff from Athletico
- We will take the academic, physical, and emotional development of your son EXTREMELY serious.
 - We cannot guarantee the safety of your son, but we will do all that we can to minimize injuries.

Parent Committees

- This program and school is an incredible place because of the supportive parents and guardians you are!
- YOUR INVOLVEMENT IS CRITICAL. JOIN A COMMITTEE!!! ALL HANDS ON DECK.
- Committees
 - Pasta Dinners (Varsity Only, on Game day, 2:50 in commons)
 - Pancake Breakfast (Date TBD)
 - Tunnel Decorations
 - Community Connections (Events outside of GBS)
 - Media (Game day photos for all levels)
- Looking for 1 or 2 parents to oversee the Parent Committees

Raider Football Gear

- Online team store will be up in mid-month through BSN Sports
 - I will provide a handout and online link
- Variety of gear for the players and families
 - Discounted prices of cleats and Nike Apparel

In Summary

- If any of you know me, then you know what I am about
 - Winning is SECONDARY
 - Winning will be a by product of holding you sons accountable for their actions in school, out of school, and on the field
